

VIEWS OF BIG EDITORS

On Senator Hill's Mid-Winter Convention at Albany.

THE "WORLD" AND "HERALD"

Do Not Gush Over the Result, in Fact They Deplore the Circumstance Which Split the Empire State Democracy in Two—Watterson Repudiates the Trickster Candidate, and Nominates Senator Carlisle for the Place.

New York, Feb. 23.—The Tribune says of the convention at Albany: "Unless all signs fail, the anti-Hill movement is rapidly gaining strength, and it has become serious enough to be called a faction. It is rather late in making itself manifest, and the influential and upright men who are concerned in it need not wonder that the general public cannot understand how it happens; that decent Democrats who are not excited at all by the seat-stealing conspiracy were so dreadfully moved because a convention was held rather earlier than is customary. Their indignation against him does them credit, but is rather belated and is open to the criticism of being a first rate moving cause. However, if they only have the necessary courage and wisdom the anti-Hillites can atone for the past by making the most of their present opportunities. If they force the fight they can speedily destroy Hill as a Presidential possibility."

"HERALD'S" COMMENTS.
The Herald says: "Mr. Hill has handled the situation with consummate tactical shrewdness. He holds New York state, or at least he thinks he does, in his list, and although the delegates were not specially instructed to vote for him at Chicago they knew perfectly well that they would not have been chosen except on that condition."

"But yesterday's convention emphasized the fact that New York state is very badly split. Hill has the machine without a doubt, but a very large number of Democrats are yet to be convinced that he has the people. All this show of power is very well in its way, but the party of the state has a very bitter feud on its hands and the aggressive policy of Mr. Hill has excited a degree of opposition which renders the vote of November uncertain for himself or Cleveland. A western man who has also the respect of the South—a man like Watterson for instance—with Hill for second place would be certain to carry New York and the country. The Democrats of the state now divided into factions, and losing no opportunity to knock each other out, would unite on such a ticket and carry the banner to undoubted victory."

SOMETHING MAY DROP
The World says: The February point in this game of politics has been scored as everyone foresaw that it would be if the early convention were persisted in. But what about the far greater contest in June? Senator Hill has a delegation from one state. But there are forty-three other states yet to be heard from and even in two months from now the real fight for the nomination will be hardly begun.

Senator Hill has secured a delegation, four months, seventeen weeks, 120 days in advance of the national convention. What has he got, what will he do with it, or what will it do, and for itself?

It can hardly be overestimated and shipped to Chicago to await the meeting of the great convention, though the haste with which it was snapped up might suggest such a policy. The delegates cannot be forbidden to read the newspapers until after they have voted, like the jurors in a capital case. A great many things are liable to happen and are quite certain to happen during the next four months which will materially influence and probably determine the choice of a Democratic candidate for President.

WATTERSON'S WARNING.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 23.—Mr. Watterson says editorially: Now that the Democrats of New York have spoken through the regular and lawful channels appointed for party expression, and the Hon. David Bennett Hill is formally presented to his fellow Democrats of the United States as the choice of the Democrats of the Empire State for President, the question before the country becomes one of yeas and nays, for whoever secures the nomination must beat Mr. Hill.

Whatever else we do let us not avoid the issue. It is squarely before us. Mr. Cleveland is no longer a possibility. His selection as the Democratic standard bearer, if such a thing were under the circumstances conceivable, would be on the part of the national Democracy an act of deliberate suicide. He could not be elected, and we are so sure of his character, as well as of his dignity of character, that we have no idea that he will allow his name to go before the national Democratic convention. The followers of the ex-President must see as Mr. Cleveland himself, that his election is not possible in the face of the stubborn opposition of Mr. Hill and his friends. But how much more probable is Mr. Hill's election, in face not merely of the widespread disappointment caused by the subordination of a popular favorite, but of an independent ticket which his nomination will surely force in the field.

WILL BE A DOLT.
There are Democrats of course who will scout this suggestion. But an organized movement, led by clever and potent men, conjuring in the name of policy issues and provided with the sinews of war is not to be despised. It will appeal to great bodies of people, particularly to great numbers of young voters, losing as every doubtful state, even assuming that Mr. Hill can carry New York, which his nomination would by no means guarantee, because it is certain he will encounter as a candidate for President, obstacles and opposition he has never had to encounter as a candidate for governor.

To the nomination therefore put forward by the Democrats of the Empire State we must respectfully and for the reasons given vote no, and we offer as a substitute the Hon. John Griffin Carlisle, of Kentucky, next in succession to Grover Cleveland as the leader and embodiment of the great issue of revenue reform and in eminence of abilities in public services and in personal integrity altogether worthy to wear his mantle, and entirely large enough to fill it.

CURE FOR COUGHS.—Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil according to directions. It is the best remedy for all sudden attacks of colds, pain and inflammation, and injuries.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

An Early Adjournment Looked for—New Measures Introduced.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 23.—The legislature is working for an early adjournment. Senator Hildebrand introduced a joint resolution that the assembly adjourn sine die March 28. It was nearly the last of June before the legislature quit grinding last year. Senator McConica is endeavoring to lift the business which is clogging the wheels of the supreme court at present. In order to get away with the large amount of business on hand he introduced a bill to double the number of justices to ten, and have two separate supreme courts to act independent of each other in all cases, unless one of the justices disagreed, when the ten would act conjointly.

According to the bill the justices elected for the shortest terms would be chief justices.

Representative Clarke introduced a bill to-night increasing the penalty for indecent exposure to $200 fine and six months' imprisonment.

A blow was aimed at Secretary Doren, of the State Board of Charities, by Representative Griffin to-night. He introduced a bill to abolish the office of secretary of the board and instead have a clerk perform the duties.

NEW CORPORATIONS

Chartered by the secretary of State—Foreign Capital Invested.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 23.—The secretary of state to-day issued the following charters: The National Fire Insurance company, of Weston, W. Va., for the purpose of insuring property of all kinds against loss or damage by fire and lightning, and to issue policies of insurance to such persons as may desire to procure such insurance on their property. The principal office of the company will be at Weston, W. Va. The capital subscribed is $100,000 and the amount paid in is $16,700, with the privilege granted to increase it to $250,000. Shares are $100 each and are held by Bernard Taylor and others of Philadelphia, Pa.

Also, the Peerless Coal and Coke Company, for the purpose of doing a general mining business, buying and working coal leases, of manufacturing, using, shipping and selling coke; also to manufacture iron and steel and doing such other business as will be advantageous for the company to do. The principal office will be at Elkhorn, in McDowell county, West Virginia. The capital subscribed is $150,000; amount paid in $15,000, with the privilege granted to increase it to $300,000. Shares are $100 each and are held by R. C. Luther and others, of Pottsville, Pa.

BELLARE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The Chief Clerk to Labor Commissioner Lewis is Thomas Thomas, of Navarro, in Gov. McKinley's home county. It pays $1,500 per year and naming him was understood to have been reserved at the time of Lewis' appointment. It is altogether probable, however, that two $300 clerkships will at least be tendered to persons in this county, and Mr. C. B. Knox, of Barnesville, is to have one of them.

It is estimated that fully half the saloons of this city are practically owned by the brewers, and more than half the groceries are practically owned by the Wheeling wholesale grocers. Of course, there are several that are owned by the proprietors outright and independent of wholesalers or anybody else, but the wholesalers practically own a good many of them, and this is true in all the river towns.

Mr. D. J. Smith, who was secretary of the Union Window Glass Company, when the works burned down, has severed his connection to accept the secretaryship of a glass company at Alexandria, Indiana, and Mr. John Adams, the manager, has made an engagement to manage at Fostoria.

Messrs. Stewart and Ward, the flour mill men here, will open a wholesale grocery this spring in this city. There never was but one effort of this kind in this city, and that was several years ago.

J. W. Houston & Son, brick manufacturers and contractors, made an assignment yesterday to James C. Tallman, Esq. Their assets are given as $2,700, but their liabilities are yet unknown.

Mr. Webster, who trained horses on Wheeling Island last season, was in Bellare mingling with the horsemen yesterday. He will handle some of J. M. Maring's horses this season.

The report that N. S. Hopkins, the horse trainer, who held forth here last season, would go to Cadiz is without foundation. He will remain in Bellare.

Frank Hathaway, who now owns the Rankin farm on McMahon's creek, contemplates making a half mile track on the place and using it as a stock farm.

Howard Pendry, who had his arm pinched while coupling cars in the B. & O. yard, is likely to be laid up a long time, as gangrene has set in.

Improvements are being made in all parts of the city. The few days of beautiful weather brought out the music of the saw and hammer.

Coal operators will refuse to pay the advance of five cents, asked for machine mining, but it is not likely to cause a general strike.

Messrs. Husbands and Inskip, who bought the Windsor hotel, have been running that hotel on a lease for about eight years.

Leo Hall, a grocer here, was closed up yesterday by James Spidel & Co., of Wheeling, on a claim for about $300.

Thomas O'Malley, a new Democrat, was added to the list of candidates for street commissioner yesterday.

Miss Eliza Baron is having a new front put in at the old homestead and will otherwise improve her home.

Over 300 firemen and their friends were dined and danced the other night at the anniversary supper.

W. J. Kirkpatrick, the township clerk, is a candidate for re-election and is hustling among the boys.

Miller Booth and son are fitting up a room adjoining central block for a business room.

The Bellare Bottle works is not running this week—too much stock piling up.

Uprose a fair trial I find Salvation Oil the best cure for rheumatism I have ever known. It gives relief more quickly, and always does its work.

JOSHUA ZIMMERMAN, Wetheredville, Md.

Chronic coughs are bores to the community and should be forced to use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

New Washington, Penn., People
Are not slow about taking hold of a new thing, if the article has merit. A few months ago David Byers, of that place, bought his first stock of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has sold it all and ordered more. He says: "It has given the best of satisfaction. I have warranted every bottle, and have not had one come back." 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by druggists. DAW

ECHOED AROUND THE WORLD.

The Cry All the World Must Heed.

"Give me liberty or death!" cried the statesman.
Freedom is a glorious thing, but there is one greater gift—Health.

"Give me Health—Freedom from Disease, or 'Give me death!' is the cry of millions of sufferers, who drag out lives of misery, slaves to their nerves, harassed by nervous weakness and exhausted powers, with tired brains, unstrung and shattered nerves, dizzy, dull-headed, sleepless, worried, anxious, with strange feelings and sensations, malacia and stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys disordered. Especially do our people suffer during the Spring months, owing to the great changes going on both in nature and our bodies at this season, when all diseases are aggravated and made worse.

Do not be a slave to disease longer, for a liberator is at hand to relieve you from your galling thralldom. Use Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great conqueror of Disease, the strengthener of the nerves, invigorator of the blood, vitalizer of brain and body, and you will be restored to perfect health. Use it this Spring. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, $1.

A TRUMPET-BLAST OF HOPE

"I was broken down with nervous and physical prostration. I wish I could shout loud enough so that all the world could hear, and tell them the good Dr. Greene's Nervura has done for me. It has made me from a weak, trembling, nervous, irritable man to one who feels he is on the highway to long years of health and happiness."

ANDREW A. OLNEY, Gibson, Steubenville, Co., New York.

Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th street, New York, can be consulted free, personally, or by letter. Call or write to him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

A Plea of not Guilty—Faddlers off—Reception—Personal, etc.

John W. Terrill and William Paxton, who entered the store of John W. Crooks on November 5 and made such a cowardly and infamous assault on him, creating such a great sensation, were indicted for assault and battery by the grand jury at the recent meeting. Yesterday they were arraigned before Judge Driggs at St. Clairsville and pleaded not guilty. Their attorney, George Duncan, went on their bond for their appearance before court at the coming session. The plea of not guilty will be a surprise to the people of Martin's Ferry.

The pudding department of the Etna mill will be off three or four weeks on account of the rebuilding of the foundation of the rolls and squeezers. The foundation has been in bad shape for some time. The work of removing the rolls, squeezers, bed plates, etc., preparatory to the changes was commenced yesterday.

Western Union instruments were placed in the Terminal building yesterday. Wires will be strung to-day and connections made to-night. This will be a commercial office and the public will find it a great convenience. With two Western Union offices the service ought to be first-class.

Joshua Steele, a prominent farmer of Pleasant Ridge, died yesterday at 5 a. m. at his home, near Steele's school-house, aged eighty-eight years. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. Oliver Parker, of Martin's Ferry, and was widely known.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in the Y. M. C. A. rooms this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which time arrangements will be made for a reception to the glassworkers, and other important business will be transacted.

Mr. Edwin V. Mason, of New York, and Miss Emily Warwood, of Martin's Ferry, will be married quietly this morning in St. Paul's Episcopal church at 11 o'clock.

Ex-Senator Cleveland, of Noble county, who is one of the World's Fair commissioners, was in Martin's Ferry yesterday.

Mrs. Stewart Lowe, of Steubenville, who was an aunt of Mrs. J. D. Gillespie, died yesterday.

Superintendent J. E. Mannix, who has been quite sick, was able to be out yesterday.

Isaac N. Pratt, agent for a "Pair of Kids," was in the city yesterday.

Judge John S. Cochran was considerably better yesterday.

That Tired Feeling

Is often the forerunner of serious illness, which may be broken up if a good tonic like Hood's Sarsaparilla is taken in season. This medicine invigorates the kidneys and liver to remove the waste from the system, purifies the blood and builds up the strength.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was used for years as a prescription by a successful physician. It is in all respects the best cough medicine made to-day. Sold by all dealers on a guarantee of satisfaction. DAW
